FLOWERS

AND

MORE FLOWERS

Honey
FLOWERS I PLANTED THIS SPRING

* Phacelia
* Borage
Echium Fastuosum,
Coriander/Cilantro
* Purple Coneflower
Lemon Balm
Catnip
* Bachelor’s Buttons
* Buckwheat
Texas Bluebonnet
Lance-Leaf Coreopsis
* Indian Blanket
Plains Coreopsis

* Corn Poppy
Salvia Sizzler Red
* Vulgare Blue Bedder
Echium Pininana
Anise Basil
* Lemon Mint
Drummond Phlox
* Cornflower
Black-Eyed Susan
PHACELIA

180 - 1,500 pounds honey per acre, depending on soil quality and depth; 300-1000 pounds of pollen.
BACHELOR BUTTONS

Bee on a Bachelor Button
minor, but can be major on cultivated area 200 pounds honey per acre; 60-160 pounds pollen
BUCKWHEAT can be; dark honey with distinct flavor; granulates quickly
CLOVER

major - up to 500 pounds per acre in a good year
YELLOW RASBERRY
The common daisy (Bellis perennis), also known as the English, European or lawn daisy.
Lemon Mint AKA Monarda
COREOPSIS FLOWERS
(Echium vulgare) 'Blue Bedder'

Bee love these Flowers
Gayfeather Liatris

Beautiful native North American wildflower sends up tall purple bloom spikes in late spring and fall. Excellent bee and butterfly plant.
Sunflower

Honey bees are the primary pollinating agents, and that colonies should be provided to the field (Barbier and Abid 1966),